Eeeeeeee Numb. 4466

The Daily Courant.

Monday, February 13. 1716.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 11.

Rome, January 25.

YEsterday the Pope gave the Cardinals to understand, that he had received Advice that the Pretender, whom he called James the 3d. was, to the great Comfort of the Catholick Religion, arrived in his Kingdom of Scotland.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 18.

Hamburg, Jan. 22. The Conferences at Riva have terminated in an Accommodation upon these Terms, That all things that have passed between the two Parties shall be buried in Oblivion. That the Confederacy shall subsist till a General Diet is held at Warsaw. That in the mean time the Fortress of Zamosc shall be surrendred to M. Zamoisky, to whom it belongs. That the Saxon, as also the Muscovite Troops, shall quit the Kingdom by the Month of May next, and that in the mean time the Poles (the Nobility not excepted) shall pay them in three Payments, viz. the 1st of February, the 1st of March, and the 1st of April, 17 Timphens for every Chimney, besides the Excise. The Grand General of the Crown Army and divers Palatines are returned hither, and on Sunday last Te Deum was sung in our Cathedral, the Bells rung, and the Artillery fired. On Monday last Count Fleming and the Palatine of Culm arrived here also, and dined that Day with the Crown General, who treated them very magnificently. At the drinking of the King's and other publick Healths, 15 Pieces of Cannon were fired; and for Count Fleming's, the Crown General's, and divers Senators, 7 Pieces were let off. This Day the Magistrates of the City had Audience of Count Fleming, who afterwards departed for Zolkiow, to remit to General Baudits the Command of the Saxon Troops, and from thence he will go forthwith to Warsaw.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 14.

Hamburg, Feb. 11. The last Letters from Copenhagen say, that the King of Denmark, at the Muster of the Train Bands of that City, had found them effective 4000 Men. From the Preparations that are making by the Northern Allies before Wismar, it is apparent they are about to Besiege it formally, for there are already Materials for raising Batteries and great Quantities of Fascines collected together, and the Troops that lie before the Town are drawn up closer to it. From Sweden we hear no more of the Russians having invaded that Kingdom, so that that Report was groundless; but Letters from Petersburg mention, that it is the Czar's Intention to fall into the Heart of that Kingdom with a powerful Army. In the mean time the King of Sweden makes great Preparations for an early Campaign, and works very hard on the equipment of his Fleet. His Majesty, who is still at Carelscroon, among other things is building a great Prahm, such as the Danes made use of at Straelsund, to plant large Artillery upon. The Swedish Resident M. Rothlieb shews Letters, which speak of an Advantage obtained by the Swedes over the Russians in Finland; but the Letters from Petersburg say on the contrary that 400 Swedes were killed or taken by a Party of the Russians.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 18.

Brussels, Feb. 13. Count Coningseck has furnished a great Hall in the Palace, wherein to give Audience three times a-Week: And we understand that his Excellency has continued Count Wrangel in the Office of Lieutenant General of the Infantry of this Country, and in that of Governor of this City. Yesterday at 6 in the Morning the Regiment of Horse of the Marquis of Westerlo, which was in Garrison here, marched out of this City towards Courtray, and that of Dragoons of Prince Eugene, which was in Quarters in the open Country, came in the same Day to supply their Place. The Regiment of Hartop is also ordered to go into Garrison at Dendermond; and that of Deworms, which is at Mons, is to come in their Place. We have also Advice that the Fortresses of Mons and Ostende were to be evacuated as Yesterday to the Imperial Troops, and those of Holland that were there in Garrison are to march towards Namur and Maestricht: But we know not yet when the other Places will be evacuated.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 18.

Hague, Feb. 17. 'Tis said that his Czarian Majesty intends to come hither in the Summer, to go to the Baths at Aix la Chapelle, as he is advised by his Physitians.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 11.

The TREATY of the BARRIER of the Netherlands, between his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, his Majesty the King of Great Britain, and the Lords the States-General of the United Provinces, concluded and signed at Antwerp, November 15. 1715.

IN regard that it hath pleased the Almighty to give Peace some time ago to Europe, and that nothing is more desirable and necessary than to establish and assure throughout, as much as may be, the common and publick Security and Tranquility, and that their High Mightinesses the Lords the States General of the United Provinces have engaged to remit the Netherlands to his Imperial and Catholick Majesty Charles VI. according to what is stipulated and agreed by the Treaty made at the Hague the 7th of September 1701. between his Imperial Majesty Leopold of Glorious Memory, his Britanick Majesty William III. also of Glorious Memory, and the said States General, That the said Potentates should agree upon what Regards their reciprocal Interests, particularly with respect to the Manner of establishing the Security of the Netherlands to serve as a Barrier to Great Britain and the United Provinces; and with respect to the Commerce of the Inhabitants of the said Netherlands, of Great Britain, and of the United Provinces: And that at present his Imperial and Catholick Majesty Charles VI. to whom the said Netherlands shall be remitted by this Treaty, His Britannick Majesty George, both at this time Reigning, and the Heirs and Lawful Successors of the said Emperor and King, and the States General of the United Provinces, acting therein by the same principle of Amity, and with the same intention to procure and establish the said mutual Security, and to affirm more and more a strict Union, have named commissioned and established for that End, for their Ministers Plenipotentiaries, namely his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, the Sieur Joseph Lotharius, Count de Kinnigsegg, his Chamberlain, Councellor of War, and Lieutenant General of his Armies; His Britanick Majesty, the Sieur William Cadogan, Esquire, his Envoy Extraordinary to their High Mightinesses the States General of the United Provinces, Member of the Parliament of Great Britain, Master of the Wardrobe, Lieutenant General of his Armies, and Colonel of the second Regiments of his Guards: And the States General the Sieurs Bruno Vander Dussen, Ancient Burgo-Master, Senator, and Councellor Pensionary of the City of Gouda, Assessor of the Councils of Emrade and Schieland, Dykegrave of Krimpenerwards; Adolphus Henry Count of Rechteren, Lord of Almeloe and Vriesenvelden, &c. President of the Lords the States of the Province of Overyssel, and Drossart of the Quarter of Zatland; Seauton de Gockinga, Senator of the City of Groninguen; and Adrian de Borsselon, Lord of Geldermalsen, &c. Senator of the City of Flushing; the three first, Deputies of the Assembly of the Lords the States General on the part of the Provinces of Holland and West Friesland, Overyssel, Groninguen and Omlands; and the fourth, Deputy of the Council of State of the United Provinces: Who being Assembled in the City of Antwerp, which by common Consent had been named for the Place of Congress, and having exchanged their full Powers, the Copies whereof are inserted at the End of this Treaty, after many Conferences, have agreed for and in the Name of his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, his Majesty of Great Britain, and the Lords the States General, in the manner as follows.

Article I. The States General of the United Provinces shall remit to his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, by virtue of the Grand Alliance in the Year 1701. and the Engagements they have since entred into immediately after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, all the Provinces and Towns of the Netherlands with their Dependencies, as well those which were possessed by the late King Charles II. of Glorious Memory, as those which are now given up by his late most Christian Majesty also of Glorious Memory. Which Provinces and Towns together, as well those that are remitted by this Treaty as those that have been formerly remitted, shall hereafter be and compose, in whole or in part, one undividable, unalienable and unchangeable Demesne, which shall be inseparable from the Estates of the House of Austria in Germany, to be enjoyed by his Imperial and Catholick Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in full and irrevocable Soveraignty and Propriety; that is to say, with respect to the former, as they were enjoyed or ought to have been enjoyed by the late King Charles III.

II. of Glorious Memory, conformably to the Treaty of Ryſwick; and with reſpect to the latter, in the ſame Manner and upon the ſame Conditions as they were ſurrendred up and remitted to the Lords the States-General by the late moſt Chriſtian King of Glorious Memory in favour of the moſt auguſt Houſe of Auſtria; and without other Charges, Mortgages, or Engagements, which may have been conſtituted on the part of the States-General and to their Profit.

II. His Imperial and Catholick Majeſty Promiſes and Engages, that not any Province, Town, Place, Fortreſs or Territory of the ſaid Netherlands can ever be granted, transferred, given or deſcend to the Crown of France, or to any Prince or Princeſs of the Family or Line of France, nor any other who ſhall not be the Succeſſor of the Houſe of Auſtria in Germany, whether it be by Donation, Sale, Exchange, Contract of Marriage, Inheritance, Teſtamentary Succeſſion, or ab inteſtato or upon any other Title or Pretext whatſoever. So that not any Province, Town, Place, Fortreſs or Territory of the ſaid Netherlands may ever be ſubjected to any other Prince than the Succeſſors of the ſaid Houſe of Auſtria only. Excepting what has been already granted to the King of Pruſſia, and what is to remain by the preſent Treaty to the ſaid Lords the States-General.

III. As the Security of the Auſtrian Netherlands will depend principally upon the Number of Troops that may be kept in the ſaid Netherlands, and in the Places that are to form the Barrier, which has been promiſed to the Lords the States-General, by the Grand Alliance; his Imperial Catholick Majeſty and their High Mightineſſes have agreed conſtantly to maintain therein at their own proper Expence a Body of 30 to 35000 Men, whereof his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty ſhall provide Three Fifths. Provided always, that if his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty ſhall diminiſh his Contingent, it ſhall be in the Power of the ſaid States-General to diminiſh theirs in Proportion. And when there is any appearance of War, the ſaid Body ſhall be augmented to 40000 Men, according to the ſame Proportion; and in caſe of actual War, a further Force ſhall be agreed upon, according as ſhall be found neceſſary. The Repartition of the ſaid Troops in time of Peace, for ſo much as concerns the Places committed to the Guard of the Troops of their High Mightineſſes, ſhall be made by them only, and the Repartition of the reſt by the Governor-General of the Netherlands, in imparting reciprocally to each other the Diſpoſitions they ſhall have made.

IV. His Imperial and Catholick Majeſty grants to the States General [privative] or ſeperate Garriſon of their own Troops, in the Towns and Caſtles of Namur and Tournay, and in the Towns of Menin, Furnes, Warneton, Ypres, and Fort Knocque. And the States General engage not to employ in the ſaid Places any Troops, although in their Pay, which belong to a Prince or a Nation that may be in War with, or ſuſpected to be in Engagements contrary to the Intereſts of his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty.

V. It is Agreed, that there ſhall be in the Town of Dendermond a common Garriſon, which ſhall be compoſed for the preſent of one Battalion of Imperial Troops, and one Battalion of thoſe of the States-General; and if hereafter it ſhall be found neceſſary to augment them, ſuch Augmentation ſhall be made of the Troops of both Parties in mutual Concert. The Governor ſhall be put in by his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty, who, as alſo the Subalterns, ſhall take an Oath to the States-General, never to do, or ſuffer any thing to be done in the ſaid Town, that may be prejudicial to their Service, with reſpect to the Preſervation of the Town and the Garriſon; and he ſhall be obliged, by the ſaid Oath, to give all free Paſſage to their Troops as often as they ſhall deſire, provided it be before-hand demanded, and that it be by a moderate Number at a time. The whole, according to the Form that ſhall be agreed upon, and ſhall be inſerted at the End of this Treaty.

[This ſhall be continued in our next.]

London, February 13.

On Saturday South-Sea Stock was 94 ſeven eights. Bank 128. India 134 one quarter. African 17.

The Directors of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, do hereby give Notice, that ſuch Maſons as are willing to Contract with them for Work to be performed there this Year, may give in their Propoſals to them, Sealed up, on Saturday the 18th of this Inſtant, at 10 in the Morning, in the ſaid Hoſpital, and in the mean time may be informed of the Nature of the Buſineſs by the Clerk of the Works there.

By His Majeſty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, this preſent Monday, being the 13th of February, will be preſented a Play call'd, The Spaniſh Fryar: Or, The Double Diſcovery. The Part of Torriſmond by Mr. Booth, Bertran by Mr. Mills, Lorenzo by Mr. Wilks, the Fryer by Mr. Leigh, Gomez, Mr. Norris, the Queen by Mrs. Porter, Elvira by Mrs Oldfield. With Entertainments of Dancing both Serious and Comic, by Monſieur Dupre, Monſieur Boval, Monſieur Dupre, Jun. Mrs. Santlow, and Miſs Younger.

Never acted but four times.

By the Company of Comedians, acting under Letters Patents granted by King Charles II.

AT the Theatre in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields this preſent Monday, being the 13th of February, will be preſented a New Tragedy call'd, The Fatal Viſion; or, The Fall of Siam. All the Cloaths, Scenes, and Decorations proper to the Play being entirely New. Beginning exactly at Six. And whereas there are a great many Scenes and Machines to be mov'd in this Tragedy, which cannot be done if Perſons ſhould ſtand on the Stage, (which they could not be without Danger) it is therefore hoped no Perſon will take it ill that they muſt be deny'd Entrance on the Stage.

Loſt the 9th Inſtant, in or near Lincoln's-Inn, a Spaniſh Dog, all White, his Tail cut, a thick Head, ſhort Legs, light hung, ſtrait Legs, ſomewhat thin, and ſinking behind, about 3 years old, of a middle Size. Whoever brings him to Serle's Coffee-houſe next Lincolns-Inn Gate, ſhall have a Guinea Reward.

Loſt a Green Pocket Book, with a Braſs Haſp, on Friday the 24th of December laſt, near Newgate, with ſeveral Notes of ſome Acts, and two Notes of Hand, one for Five Pound, payable to Mr. Edward Richardſon, the other for Forty Shillings, payable to Mr. Thomas Wells, and ſome other Papers, of no uſe to any but the Owner, and but little to him; if brought to the Amſterdam Coffee-houſe, ſhall receive Five Shillings Reward, and no Queſtions aſked.

Run out of a Gentleman's Chambers in the Temple, the Eighth of this inſtant Month, in the Evening, a Dark Mottle Bitch, Liver Colour Head and Ears, and a White Streak down her Forehead; ſhe has ſmall Spots all over her Body and Legs, and is of the Stop Kind: Whoſoever will bring her to Mr. Lane's, the Kings-head Tavern, the Corner of Chancery-lane, ſhall have Twenty Shillings Reward; ſhe is about Seven Months Old, and has Lately

A Chariot, and a Pair of Horſes, late the Property of a Gentleman's Deceaſed, to be Sold, ſtanding at Mr. Burton's in Broad Way beyond Tuttle-ſtreet Weſtminſter. Inquire at the Dwelling-houſe of Mr. Bakers in King Square Weſtminſter.

To be Sold together, or apart, Three ſeaſon'd Stone Coach-Horſes, and a very handſome Coach, with a large Fore-Glaſs, lined with a Velvet; it's fit for Town or Country. Inquire of William Beech, at the Sign of the Roſe in Little Queen-Street in Holbourn.

A Fine Italian Picture of our Saviour in his Bloody Swear, as large as the Life, and two Curious Images, to be Sold at Mr. John Hamerſley's in Peterborough Court in Fleet-Britain.

A Collection of very valuable Engliſh Books, of Law, Divinity, Hiſtory, Poetry, Voyages, &c. being the Library of Robert Breton, late of the Middle-Temple, Eſq; deceaſed, will be ſold very cheap, (the Price being put in the firſt Leaf of each Book) this Day, the 13th Inſtant, and continue till the End of the Week. By J. Walthoe, Junior, Bookſeller, againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill. Of whom Catalogues may be had Gratis, as alſo at the following Coffee-Houſes, viz. The Rainbow in Weſtminſter-Hall Gate, Tom's in Devereux Court, and Beconſ's in Mitre Court near the Temple, Serle's at Lincoln's-Inn-Gate, Squire's at Grey's Inn, Peagoe's at Bernard's-Inn-Gate in Holborn, and St. Paul's in St. Paul's Church-Yard. N. B. The Sale begins every Morning at 9 of the Clock, and continues till 7 in the Evening.

One Thouſand Two Hundred Thirty Five Pieces of Stuffs, Norwich and London, will be put up to Publick Sale by the Candle, at the Crown Coffee-houſe in Threadneedle-ſtreet behind the Royal Exchange, on Thurſday the 16th Inſtant, at 3 a Clock in the Afternoon. Which are to be ſeen at the Publick Sale Warehouſe on the Royal Exchange, till the time of Sale, where Catalogues are to be had.

To be Sold by AUCTION.

On Thurſday the 16th Inſt. all the Houſhold Goods, lately Mr. Lacey's Deceaſed, at his Dwelling Houſe, 4 Doors from the Water-ſide in Arundel Street, near St. Clements Church in the Strand; conſiſting of Beds, and Bedding, Chairs, Cuſhions, Screens, Deſks, Looking Glaſſes, Tables, Screens, Carpits, Stands, Pictures, Cheney, Books, Linnen, and Kitchin Goods, a very good Copper, Brewing Veſſels, and all other Neceſſaries. The Goods to be ſeen, and Catalogues to be had at the Houſe, Monday, Tueſday and Wedneſday before the Sale. To begin at 10 a Clock on Thurſday Morning. Note, the Houſe is to be Lett.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

On Friday the 17th Inſtant, at the Marine Coffee-houſe in Birchin-lane, at 3 a Clock in the afternoon, 68 Barrels 2 Remnants of Indico Lahore, and 21 Barrels 2 Remnants of Duſt, one Barrel in a Lott; formerly bought of the United Eaſt-India Company, in whoſe Warehouſe (at St. Hellins) the ſame may be ſeen every Day till the time of Sale. Catalogues are to be had at the ſaid Warehouſe, and Place of Sale. J. Cotterland. Note, This is the laſt Parcel of Indico and Duſt, that was advertiſed for Sale in the St. James's Poſt of the 30th of January laſt.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

On Wedneſday the 22d Inſtant, at Lloyd's Coffee-houſe in Lombard-ſtreet, at 4 a Clock in the Afternoon (only one Caſe of French Wine in a Lott) viz. 26 Caſes of Excellent Hermitage Claret, deep, bright, ſtrong, freſh, of the true curious Flavour and Taſte. 28 Ditto of Cote Rotie, deep, bright, ſtrong, freſh, of a fine Flavour and Taſte. 10 Ditto of Burgundy, of a Glorious Flavour. alſo 8 Ditto of Excellent deep Burgundy. N. B. The aboveſaid French Wine are neat and entire Parcels, now in a Warehouſe at Mr. John Furly's, Merchant, in St. Martin's-Lane in Cannon-ſtreet. To be ſeen and taſted on Monday the 20th, Tueſday the 21ſt, and all Wedneſday the 22d Inſtant (as above) till the Time of Sale. To be Sold by Thomas Hatton, and William Gibſon, Brokers.

Next Thurſday will be Publiſh'd,

Legal Obedience, in Oppoſition to Unlimited, The Subject's Neceſſary Duty, and a Prince's beſt Security: A Sermon Preached Jan. 30. 1713-14. at Barwick Chappel, in the Pariſh of St. James's Weſtminſter, on Eccleſ. 8. 2. I counſel thee to keep the King's Commandments, and that in regard of the Oath of God. By Thomas Bladenhayſter, Chaplain to the Right Honourable Lionel Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex. Sold by Samuel Crouch at the Corner of Pope's-Head-Ally in Cornhill, and Benjamin Cowſe, at the Roſe and Crown in St. Paul's Church-Yard. Price Six-pence. At which Places may likewiſe be had, his Thankſgiving Sermon, Preached Jan 20. 1714-15. for bringing his Majeſty to a peaceful and quiet poſſeſſion of the Throne, and diſappointing thereby the Deſigns of the Pretender, and all his Abettors and Adherents.

LONDON, Printed by S. GRAY, and Sold by R. BURLEIGH in Amen-Corner.